

Exercise #3: Figure out what you're interested in.

All of us had to start out somewhere. Many of us had a general idea of what we were interested in or what we might be able to do. This exercise might help you and your friends figure out some things you will explore for work.

Do you like:

Animals?

Gardening?

Children?

Cars?

Helping others?

You can use pictures or make a list